Border

To Start – Turn your blanket RS facing.

Round 1 – In White (still attached)

Ch1, *htr evenly across the top of your blanket, in the last stitch (2htr, ch2, 2htr) this will be your first corner, now htr evenly down the edge of your blanket, I did the following stitches into the edge of the blanket:

2htr – tr rows

1htr – dc rows

1htr/2htr alternated – htr rows, please see the pics below of my border into the row edges. (2htr, ch2, 2htr) in last stitch, this will be your second corner* repeat  completing your 3rd and 4th corners, ss to the first htr.

Round 2 – Attach Cornflower to any ch2 space.

Flo, ss in each stitch across, (dc, ch2, dc) in the ch2 space, flo, ss in each stitch to the next corner, (dc, ch2, dc) repeat around your blanket to the end, ss to the first ss.

Round 3 – Attach White to any ch2 space.

Dc in the white loop behind the ss from round 2 (see picture below) in each stitch across, (dc, ch2, dc) in the ch2 space, dc in each stitch to the next corner, (dc, ch2, dc) in the next ch2 space, repeat around your blanket to the end, ss to the first dc.

Round 4 – Attach Fondant to any ch2 space.

Repeat round 2.

Round 5 – Attach White to any ch2 space.
Ch1, htr in the white loop behind the ss from round 4 in each stitch across, (3htr) in the ch2 space, htr in each stitch to the next corner, (3htr) in the next ch2 space, repeat around your blanket to the end, ss to the first htr. (Pic of finished border above).

Break yarn, sew all ends in.

ALL FINISHED!!
